OCTOBER GALLERY LOCATIONS & EXHIBITS:

1. CAP ArtSpace

171 E. State St. (Inside Center Ithaca Visitor Center ) | artspartner.org

Greater Ithaca Art Trail Group Show

Come to the CAP ArtSpace to see a Group Exhibit of over 30 artists that are on the Greater Ithaca Art Trail! The Art Trail has two Open Studio Weekends on October 6-7 and 13-14, where 38 studios across Tompkins County are open simultaneously. This group exhibit is a GREAT way to see all the artists' work in one location, and plan your studio visits. You'll see work by painters, photographers, printmakers, fiber artists, potters and more. This is a truly great annual exhibit of some of the finest artists in our region. Learn more about each artist and download the map for the Open Studio Weekends at www.ArtTrail.com. The CAP ArtSpace is a program of the Community Arts Partnership. We thank the Tompkins Trust Company for their generous sponsorship of the CAP ArtSpace and Taylor, The Builders for sponsoring our October to December exhibits.

2. Cellar D'or

136 E. State St. (The Commons) | <http://www.thecellardor.com/>

Chris Charles: Letterpress and linocut prints

Chris Charles uses hand set type, carved linoleum & custom made plates to create her original designs. Chris uses color and type in her exciting prints to create unique images and content. She prints everything on a few presses that are way older than her at her home base in Rochester, NY.

4. Sunny Days

123 S. Cayuga St. | sunnydaysny.com

"Dia de los Muertos" by Mary Reynolds

Ithaca artist and San Antonio native, Mary Reynolds will create an installation at Sunny Days of Ithaca to celebrate the Mexican Day of the Dead holiday. The celebration will include prints of her well known animal drawings adapted for this festivity, both framed and matted, cards, journals, necklaces, key rings and magnet sets as well as assemblages. The Day of the Dead celebration traces back to Mesoamerican native traditions and is a family event to remember ancestors, whose spirits visit the earth once a year. Mary has taken it a step further to include animals and other festive interpretations.

5. Community School of Music and Arts

330 East MLK / State Street | CSMA-ithaca.org

Aguakinesis

Aguakinesis is a transnational, story-based, interdisciplinary arts project involving individuals from the Seneca Nation, Colombia, Mexico, and Ithaca. For the past six months the group has worked collaboratively, sharing stories of water and indigenous knowledges and creating artistic interpretations of these stories, featured in this exhibition with other works by indigenous and Latinx artists from throughout the Americas. It includes interactive displays, music, video, photographs, looped live performance piece, and a revisiting of Balcon Criollo, a collection of artifacts from community members' homes inaugurated last year at CSMA. Live performances at 5:30, 6:30, and 7:30 PM on Gallery Night!

6. Handwork

102 W. State St. | handwork.coop/

Needle-felted Pumpkins and Gourds

Demonstration by Co-op artist Laureen Quattrini. Using wool roving, curls and special barbed needles, wool is shaped, sculpted and felted into it's own unique form.

7. Hilton Garden Inn

130 E Seneca Street | hgi.com

A Moment of Recognition: Art by Challenge Participants & Staff

Challenge Workforce Solutions is celebrating its fiftieth year of creating pathways to employment for people with disabilities and other barriers. This exhibit showcases a diverse and expressive array of artwork by over a dozen program participants and staff members—some of them mainstays of the local arts scene and others sharing their work with the public for the very first time. Join us on Gallery Night to meet the artists, learn more about the organization, and enjoy refreshments and live music. On display through October 31. For more information, visit aboutchallenge.org.

Olivia is excited to share her Fall/Winter Collection with you in Gallery style appreciation at Gimme Coffee on Cayuga. Come for the month of September to Shop for the perfect hat. Hats are available to purchase at Handwork in Ithaca, at the Ithaca Farmers Market, and online at www.easylivinghats.com

9. Gimme Coffee

506 W State St. | gimmeecoffee.com

Recent work by Justin Zoll

Justin is a local photographer exploring some of nature's smallest landscapes through his microscope. Featured here are a selection of microscopic panoramas of crystallized substances photographed using cross polarized light. Most images are composed of many individual photographs and thus lend themselves to very large format printing. www.justinzoll.com

10. The History Center

401 E. State St, Suite 100 | thehistorycenter.net/

Meet & Greet with Refreshments:

Julia Taylor, our new Youth Educator! 6:00-8:00PM

As an accomplished community-based theater artist, educator, and facilitator, Julia brings a critical pedagogy to her work, promoting dialogue through creative processes in educational and community settings. She most recently served as the Program Director of youTHink, supporting arts and civic action programs with youth across Los Angeles County. Julia is a 2017-18 Arts Education ACTIVATE Fellow with Arts for LA and was a 2012 Create Change Professional Development Fellow with the Laundromat Project. She holds a Masters in Applied Theater from the CUNY School of Professional Studies. Julia also serves as a Company Member of Civic Ensemble.

11. Buffalo Street Books

215 N Cayuga St. | buffalostreetbooks.com

Recent Work by Carmen Adriana Torrado Gonzalez

Carmen works with found materials to create imagined 'homes' for a multitude of mediums; poetry, collage, book-making, photography, and graphite drawings. This series of homes deconstructs, guts, and reconstructs the expectations, value, and common understanding of the book object and move to blur the lines between what constitutes a piece of art and what constitutes a piece of everyday function.

12. The Mink Gallery

614 North Cayuga St. | barbaramink.com

The Mink Gallery welcomes you to the CAP-sponsored Ithaca Art Trail for Gallery Night as well as the first two weekends of the month. Open 11:00-5:00 each day.

Event possible, in part, by a grant from the Tompkins County Tourism Program

13. Well-being Healing Center

317 N Aurora St. | wellbeinghealingcenter.com

Creative Conjuring, watercolors by Lisa Baechtle

"I am on a journey of curiosity. Each painting is a step along the way, discovering new pathways of growth. I vision paths I have already walked, paths I am now present with, and I imagine new paths yet to be trodden. Since my world, my passion, is rooted in natural law, fauna and flora are the symbols that rise from my imaginative heart and belly."

14. Decorum-too

215 N Cayuga St # 74, The Dewitt Mall

Contemporary Art for the Classic Art Lover. Representational Painting and Sculpture by Rob Mackenzie, Jenny Page and Terry Plater.

15. First Unitarian Society Ithaca

306 North Aurora St. (corner of Buffalo & Aurora) | unitarian.ithaca.ny.us

Soul of the Woods by Donna Faivre-Roberts

Soul Of the Wood features figurative sculptures by Lansing artist Donna Faivre-Roberts. Her works range from whimsical to spiritual and many with dream like qualities. Her process starts with sand worn wood collected along the shores of Cayuga Lake. These natural forms shaped by nature are given their voice by the addition of her sculpted faces and hands. Her intent is to maintain the beauty and integrity of the wood while creating art that speaks to our soul. The spiritual nature of the show is also reflected (pun intended) in a new collection of mirrors designed by the artist. Each mirror invites the observer to see beyond the surface and to look within

16. Ink Shop Studio Gallery

Ink Shop Studio Gallery, 330 E.State / MLK Street | ink-shop.org/

Dreams and Pressings | The journey of two artist friends, Genie Shenk and Mary Ellen Long.

The Ink Shop is honored to exhibit the poetic documentations by book artists, Mary Ellen Long and Genie Shenk displaying three-dimensional works of paper, text, imagery, and found objects.

17. Mockingbird Paperie

144 E State St (The Commons) | mockingbirdpaperie.com

Paintings by Kim Schrag

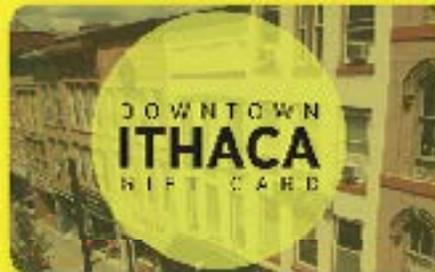

Kim Schrag will be showing small oil and acrylic paintings, dominant in color and texture. These paintings are part of two series, The Emergence of Form and The Observer is the Observed. The artwork explores her interest in the psychological, social and existential condition of being human. Kim shares Unbound Art Studio with Fernando Llosa in Trumansburg. She teaches Drawing and Design at Tompkins Cortland Community College. Kim is currently working on a series of drawings, examples can be seen at her website: www.kimschrag.com.

18. Benjamin Peters

120 E. State St. (The Commons) | benjaminpeters.com

“The Fingerlakes Through My Lens” by Matthew Mayers

What is High Dynamic Range Photography? The overwhelming beauty of breathtaking sunsets on the lake, gorges, fall foliage, and bridges captured to appear as paintings is an example of this delicate method. I seek to evoke a diversity of perspective and emotion through the various landscapes I capture. Matt, a Brooklyn and Long Island native, is a two-time Cornell grad that currently works in the non-profit sector. He has presented his work at the October 2017's First Friday Gallery at Sunny Days of Ithaca and at August's First Friday Gallery at Buffalo Street Books. Matt has puzzles and 4x6 photo cards being sold at Sunny Days of Ithaca and postcards at Buffalo Street Books.

19. New Roots Charter School

116 N. Cayuga St. | newrootsschool.org

Runaway Inequality or Joyful Justice? Color-in doodles by Elan Shapiro

This selection of black-and-white as well as colored-in doodles reflects my efforts to integrate - in practice - mindfulness, wellness, earth connection and racial and economic justice.

20. Ithaca Coffee Company

311 E Green St | ithacacoffee.com

Artwork by Patrick O'Connor

Self-taught watercolor/abstract artist and Ithaca native, Patrick J. O'Connor's passion for painting ignited from an experience as a young child at age thirteen. Patrick happened upon an art gallery window that featured a watercolor demonstration. His youthful curiosity and imagination drew him into the gallery to discover the artistic elements that continue to inspire his work today. Working from many palettes, through both traditional and non-traditional methods, Patrick allows the paint to flow across the paper. Using broad washes and dry brushing while adding and cutting the paint to reveal the direction of the work, he embellishes on the element of surprise. These works “push” the reality of color to bring you closer to experiencing the way he responds to the world around him.

21. Press Cafe

118 W Green St | facebook.com/ithacapress

Analog(ged): 35mm B&W film photograph By Todd A. Ugine

A smattering of black and white images captured over the past 5 years with a variety of 35mm films and cameras. The images are part of a photolog recording the daily lives of one family, their travels and their friends.

22. Nature's Apothecary

115 S Cayuga St | NaturesApothecaryIthaca.com

Fluid Art at the Apothecary by Shawn Burke

When I am not making customized prescriptions for patients, I like to unwind by creating custom art what's known as fluid art. Like the medications I create, every piece of art has it's own custom flare to it. It's fun to create such works of art because I never know what they will actually look like until they are dry.

23. Sacred Root Kava Bar

103 South Geneva Street | Find us on Facebook

Joint Exhibition at Sacred Root Kava Lounge

Creatures of Rest / Animal Spirits for rejuvenation and contemplation by Jill Hoffman.

Black Metal Branches / Tree mandala photography by K. Smith.

24. Padma Center for Natural Therapies

114 W Buffalo St | padmacenter.com

Brothers Eli and Asa Bartholomew are showing their collection of watercolor paintings, pen and ink drawings and a colored pencil mandala. Eli is 16 years old and has lived in the Ithaca area since he was 2 1/2 years old. He was 11 when he started this series of watercolors. This past year he began to dabble in pen and ink and colored pencils. Asa is 14 and has lived in the Ithaca area since he was a few months old. He did his first watercolor in this series when he was 9 years old.
