JANUARY GALLERY LOCATIONS & EXHIBITS:

1. CAP ArtSpace

171 E. State St. (Inside Center Ithaca Visitor Center) | artspartner.org

Pinwheels - Domenica Brockman (paintings)

New work by Domenica Brockman exploring geometric abstracts. "I am an abstract painter whose work is influenced by the landscape of my home in upstate New York. The stark light and dark of winter, the shapes of barns, silos, and roads, topographical maps, and the repetition and breaks of patterns in the natural world are all sources of inspiration. Other influences include 70's graphic design, and African textiles, especially Kuba grass weavings from the Congo, and mud cloth from Burkina Faso (I lived in both African countries as a child). My preferred medium is encaustic paint (pigmented wax and damar) on wood panels. Thank you to our 2019 ArtSpace sponsor - Tompkins Trust Company

"Gnomes are Faeries too!" by Rachel Terwilliger

A showcase of Gnomish Faerie exploration by local fantasy/Faerie comic artist & illustrator Rachel Terwilliger (@rachelillustrates on Instagram, Facebook and deviantArt). Very often the mainstream representation of faerie folk shows us only small, winged creatures who focus on flower care and the kinder aspects of the unseen. While these are valid as any, most other aspects of Faerie are treated as separate from that magical nature - including Gnomes! This work seeks to recognize that nature in these woodland folk and inspire others to do the same. Featuring Gnomes of several Faerie realms, including Rachel's steampunk/fantasy graphic novel called "Tock the Gnome" (readable in-progress at tockthegnome.com). Her other recent projects include design work for The Cherry Arts' "The Snow Queen" 2016-2018 and a series of book covers for H.M. Barone's "The Zoey Jane Files." Prints of her work and original pieces are for sale at rachelillustrates.etsy.com.

6. Collegetown Bagels

203 N Aurora St | collegetownbagels.com/

2016-2018 Works on Paper by Vanessa McCaffery

Vanessa trained professionally as an artist in college and returned to practicing art in 2016 after a ten-year hiatus. Pieces here include "Obstinence," her first drawing in ten years. Vanessa just joined State of the Art Gallery as a new member artist in May. Her work, especially the larger-scale pieces, challenges the limits of pen and ink while portraying individual creatures of her acquaintance. Spending time with these animals while photographing them allows keener focus on their physical presence and personality. Even Ed the turkey vulture shows his open and inquisitive nature here.

7. The Bookery

Dewitt Mall | thebookery.com/

The Bookery Books and Paintings in The Dewitt Mall, downtown Ithaca, is pleased to present its first Gallery Night January 4, 5:00pm-8:00pm. Featuring work by Barbara Mink, the gallery is a warm and inviting addition to the art scene downtown.

8. Ink Shop Studio Gallery

330 E.State / MLK Street | ink-shop.org/

20th Mini-Print International

9. Press Cafe

118 W Green St | facebook.com/ithacapress

"Visions" by Sarah Rose

This six piece collection is a part of Sarah's most recent work. She started the series in early 2018 after a burst of creativity which she channeled through artistic expression. Painting is her therapy, and she uses art as a way to express her inner light as well as darkness. These visions she puts onto canvas come to her in dreams both in the day and night. Pure imaginative expression is what characterizes her body of work. A young artist, she is just becoming her full self as a creative vessel.

10. New Roots Charter School

116 N. Cayuga St. | newrootsschool.org

Light, Color, and Nature by Wayne Gustafson

Wayne Gustafson has an eye for beauty, particularly when light, color, and nature come together to generate a combination of delight and awe.

"Sometimes nature just slaps me in the face with its raw beauty, insisting that I invite it into my camera. Even when I don't get it just right, my photography always teaches me to see life afresh."

11. Gimme Coffee, 506 W State St

Seating Room Recent work by Kelly Cullen

Cafe Side "ARCHETYPES" Melissa Gericke

"ARCHETYPES" My name is Melissa Gericke and I am an artist currently residing in Ithaca, NY. I have been creating hand cut collage art since 2008. Most of the themes depicted are based on occult practices, mystical beliefs, or religious symbolism. The images often revolve around an archetypal being or character, whose role is that of provoking a subconscious reaction in the viewer."
